

Adrienne is a passionate, goal-orientated, outside of the box thinker who leverages social media for business development. Adrienne has been an elementary school teacher for ten years and enjoys documenting her time in the classroom on Instagram. Adrienne is using her strong interest in social media marketing and content development to impact and grow our brand.

Adrienne graduated from the University of South Florida with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education. She is certified to teach K-6, and well as Students with Exceptionalities. Adrienne believes in leveraging social media to drive engagement, develop business and brand awareness, and impact customer success.